

Guiding Principles

MISSION

To provide a Christ-centered, classical academic community for home school families focusing on a comprehensive history-based educational tutelage based on a Christian worldview.

VISION

To provide, within a classical Christian model, a tutelage that enhances, not replaces, each family's home school. Our goal is to teach each subject in such a way to allow all students an opportunity to excel in their God-given gifts. We encourage the exploration of the arts as the students study history, literature, writing, and science.

CORE VALUES

As The Master's Study seeks to fulfill its mission and ring true to the vision, a few core values serve as compass headings. These include:

Remaining Christ-centered: TMS is unapologetically committed to Jesus Christ as the center of our organization, our education, our relationships, and our purpose.

Classical Education: TMS is committed to teaching children using a Christian Classical model as a guide while incorporating creative and individualized teaching styles to deliver such. TMS strives to foster excellence through this educational model, developing critical thinkers and voices for the cause of Christ, while setting the highest of standards.

Tutelage Model: TMS remains a tutelage school, with emphasis on the role of tutor. TMS yields to the parent as the lead teachers within each student's home school. The relationship between the Lead Teachers (parent) and TMS Teacher (tutor) is one of respect and cooperation with a willingness to yield to one another when appropriate for the benefit of the student in his or her academic pursuits.

Community Based: TMS is committed to building a community environment in which members spur one another on to follow Christ more closely. This community is comprised of the students themselves, parents and TMS staff. Opportunities for fellowship within the school day as well as supplemental activities & field trips, service and ministering to one another, and an opportunity for prayer for each other foster this community spirit.

DOCTRINAL STATEMENT

We believe that God is one in essence, but that He exists in three distinct and equal persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and that these three have precisely the same nature, attributes, and perfections.

We believe that the Bible is the inspired, complete, and only Word of God, and that both inspiration and inerrancy extend to every part of the writings as they came from God.

We believe in God as absolute and sole Creator of the universe and that creation was by divine fiat, not by evolutionary process.

We believe that man was created by God in His image to enjoy His fellowship; that by his own choice, he decided to rebel against his Creator; that every person since that time has been born a sinner; that our personal sins cause us to have need of justification and redemption; and that sin is universal and without excuse.

We believe that God, by His sovereign choice and out of love for humanity, sent Jesus Christ into the world to save sinners through His death on the cross. We believe that we are justified before God by His grace alone through faith in Jesus Christ. We believe that there is no way of salvation other than through Jesus Christ.

We believe that Jesus Christ is both God and man; that He was born of the virgin Mary; that He died for our transgressions; that He rose bodily from the dead; that He ascended to the right hand of God the Father; and that He will return to the earth bodily and visibly to set up His eternal kingdom.
