

The Master's Study

Simple Scope and Sequence by Subject

Science

| TMS ROLE:  | Supplmental / Enrichment |                                      |     |     |     | Teacher / Tutor Guided |     |     | Teacher/Tutor Driven |                  | TMS Teacher/Tutor Directed                         |           |                         |                         |
|--|--------------------------|--------------------------------------|-----|-----|-----|------------------------|-----|-----|----------------------|------------------|--|-----------|-------------------------|-------------------------|
|  | PreK                     | Lower Grammar                        |     |     |     | Upper Grammar          |     |     | Dialectic            |                  |  | Rhetoric  |                         |                         |
|  |                          | LGK                                  | LG1 | LG2 | LG3 | UG4                    | UG5 | UG6 | DI                   | DII              | DIII   | RI        | RII                     | RIII                    |
| Class Description                                      | Science Exploration      | Nature Studies / Science Dsicovery   |     |     |     | Science                |     |     | General Science      | Physical Science | Biology  | Chemistry | Physics or Adv. Science | Physics or Adv. Science |
| Topics   |                          | YR 1 - (The Ancients) - Life Science |     |     |     |                        |     |     | text driven topics   |                  | Science becomes an elective at this level of study |           |                         |                         |
| YR 2 - (The Middle Ages) - Astronomy and Earth Science |                          |                                      |     |     |     |                        |     |     |                      |                  |  |           |                         |                         |
| YR 3 - (The 19th Century) - Chemistry                  |                          |                                      |     |     |     |                        |     |     |                      |                  |  |           |                         |                         |
| YR 4 (Modern Times) - Physics & Modern Technology      |                          |                                      |     |     |     |                        |     |     |                      |                  |  |           |                         |                         |